

ADRA Australia and New Zealand

Director of International Programs

Commitment: Full-time

Location: Wahroonga, Sydney

Applications Close: 8 February 2021

About the role

ADRA Australia and New Zealand is seeking a qualified and experienced International Development professional to join our senior management team.

The Director of International Programs (IP) is responsible for the oversight of the international program operations of ADRA Australia and New Zealand, with particular attention to people leadership, strategy, program development and implementation, and capacity strengthening of partner country offices.

The successful applicant is a servant-leader who is passionate about ADRA's purpose, "to serve humanity so all may live as God intended", and is committed to meeting the challenges of this diverse role with enthusiasm, collaboration, and teamwork.

The Director of International Programs leads the International Programs team out of the ADRA Australia office in Wahroonga, Sydney, and regularly travels to Auckland and Wellington in New Zealand. The work of the International Programs team includes partnerships with a number of partner ADRA country offices where a range of health, sustainable livelihoods and education development projects in the Pacific, Asia and in Africa, are creating opportunities for communities and families to thrive.

The Job Description for the role is included at the end of this document and will give you more specific information on this exciting and challenging role.

About ADRA Australia and New Zealand

The Adventist Development and Relief Agency (ADRA) is the official humanitarian agency of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. As part of the global ADRA network which reaches into more than 124 countries, we are motivated by our faith, to enable people and communities in Australia, New Zealand, the South Pacific, Asia and Africa to improve their health and livelihoods and assist people to prepare for and recover from disasters around the world.

As part of the global ADRA Network, both ADRA Australia and ADRA New Zealand share the same purpose and as from 1 January 2021, an alliance between the two entities was formed with the transition to be rolled out over a two-year period. The Alliance is intended to make both organisations stronger, and as a result, have a greater reach and impact in the communities. Leveraging resources and minimising duplication of work in fulfilling this purpose is expected to increase efficiencies and organisational capacity.

ADRA Australia holds full accreditation with the Australian Government Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade and is a member of the Australian Council for International Development (ACFID) and the Australian Council for Social Services (ACOSS). ADRA New Zealand is fully accredited with the New Zealand Foreign Affairs and Trade and Council for International Development.

Our Values - We conduct our work by being:

Connected - working collaboratively for the best outcome for those living in poverty or distress.

Courageous - persevering through challenging situations.

Compassionate – empathising with the communities we work with and with each other.
